NOF CORPORATION

NOF CORPORATION Selected for the FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index

NOF CORPORATION (Headquarters: Shibuya-ku, Tokyo; President: Koji Sawamura) is pleased to announce that it has been selected for inclusion in the FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index, an ESG investment index developed by FTSE Russell, a globally recognized index provider.

We believe that this selection reflects FTSE Russell's assessment that our sustainability initiatives and ESG management efforts, which we have been promoting to date, are at a certain level or above. Going forward, under our corporate philosophy—"The NOF Group is dedicated to contributing to humanity and society as a corporate group that creates new value through the power of chemistry, from biosphere to outer space"—we will continue to strive to both solve social issues and enhance corporate value through our business activities. While further strengthening relationships of trust with our stakeholders, we remain committed to helping realize a sustainable society over the medium and long term.

About FTSE Russell

FTSE Russell, part of the London Stock Exchange Group (LSEG), provides global index and data services. FTSE Russell indices are widely used by investors around the world as benchmarks for investment decisions and asset management.

About the FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index

The FTSE JPX Blossom Japan Index is a stock index composed of Japanese companies that demonstrate strong ESG practices, including initiatives and disclosures relating to Environment, Social, and Governance matters. The index is also widely recognized as one of the representative ESG indices adopted by the Government Pension Investment Fund (GPIF) as one of its benchmarks for ESG investment decisions.
